Alice's Letter

Dear Grandmother,

How are you? I'm good.

Today, I'll tell you about my summer vacation plan. Last night, my father said, "Do you want to go to Grandma's city? We're going there this summer." When he said that, I was very happy. I'm still happy now.

Do you know why? Because I want to go to a dance show with you at the South Dance Hall. My mother said you were a very good dancer and were very popular in your city when you were young. In my class, I'm learning classical dance. So I was very surprised to hear that about you. I want to watch a dance with you. And can you tell me your story as a dancer when we go there?

I will study more about dance before summer vacation. I hope to see you soon. I love you.

Love,
Alice

Dear Alice,

How are you? I'm happy to read your letter.

I'm very glad because you will come here this summer. I want to see you too. When you come, let's go watch a dance. But I'm sorry, the South Dance Hall is not open this summer, so we can't go there. How about the Green Dance Hall? It's farther, but it's very big and very famous in this country. We can go there by bus in twenty minutes.

There are many delicious sandwich shops near Green Dance Hall. A sandwich is one of your favorite foods, isn't it? So let's eat some and talk about my dancing story. I really enjoyed dancing when I was young. I'll tell you my story to help you learn more.

I hope to see you soon too. Be careful when you come here. I love you.

Your grandmother,
Cathy
